TRANSPORTATION OPTIONS IN CHEMUNG COUNTY

4/8/16

The Chemung county Department of Aging and Long Term Care does not make recommendations about transportation providers and cannot be responsible for their performance. It is your responsibility to screen the providers on this list regarding their qualifications and ability to perform the services you require. Although we have attempted to include accurate information about all transportation providers in our area, this information is subject to change and other providers may exist that we are unaware of or that have established services since this list was last updated. Please contact Laurie Hansen at 737-5527 or lhansen@co.chemung.ny.us with any corrections, additions, revisions and suggestions regarding this list – thank you!

C TRAN List of Private Pay Transportation Options (attached)

511NY Southern Tier Rideshare (dial 511 or www.SouthernTierRideshare.com):

Offers ride-sharing (carpooling) options for commuters and others wishing to share rides. Registered commuters are matched with other commuters who have similar travel patterns within their area that are interested in ride-sharing. Matches are based on proximity to home and work locations as well as work hours

Chemung Volunteer Action Corps (734-4161 or www.cvacofchemung.org):

Refers eligible individuals to volunteers who provide transportation within Chemung County to help county residents, primarily age 60 and over, remain living independently in their homes. "Getting There", a one-stop educational source of information on travel options in Chemung County, includes trained volunteer bus buddies/travel trainers to assist with promoting program components, as well as providing individualized assistance in using C TRAN buses

For those with Limited Income and Resources
