FOR A FILM SCREENING OF “HERE ONE DAY”

HOSTED BY WALK A MILE IN MY SHOES SUICIDE PREVENTION

When Filmmaker Kathy Leichter moved back into her childhood home after her mother’s suicide, she discovered a hidden box of audiotapes. Sixteen years passed before she had the courage to delve into this trove, unearthing intimate details her mother had recorded.

Here One Day is an emotionally candid film about a woman coping with mental illness.

In recognition of International Survivors of Suicide Loss Day we are hosting this screening of “Here One Day: A Film by Kathy Leichter”. This film is reaching across the globe to reduce the stigma and isolation that surround mental illness and suicide. Ultimately the film is touching peoples hearts, which is where change begins.

Whether you have lost a loved one to suicide, or are impacted by mental illness in yourself, family or friends, we welcome you to join us for a supportive event .
